Dear Mr. Chairman:

I want you to know that I strongly object to the broadcasting of political ads in my home that show horrible pictures of aborted fetuses. I ask that you allow the management of TV stations in my community to prevent this from occurring again. If you will not do this, at least allow the stations to air this kind of material at times when children will not be watching, and require the advertiser to publish in the local newspaper a warning and schedule of these ads at least 48 hours before their broadcast.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

You may be receiving copies of a sample letter printed in the Denver Post, which objects to television broadcasting of political ads by an anti-abortion candidate. I am attaching a copy.

You may not have seen the full newspaper ad of which this letter is part. The ad instructs readers to mail the letter to "Mark Van Loucks", not to the FCC. The ad ends with:

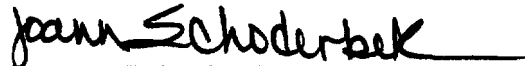

"If you, your children, or someone you know has been injured by being exposed to these TV ads, please write to the address below and we'll contact you quickly."

To me it is transparent that this is a scam by a legal firm to get business. It concerns me greatly that this attempt would trade free speech for customers. I feel it is extremely important that American citizens not be shielded from ugly realities, as such censorship would be used in manipulative ways.

It is transparent also that this "letter" targets only the political ads of one candidate, whose television ad allegedly depicts "horrible pictures", when these pictures are but a drop in the bucket of violence and bloodshed continually shown in television entertainment and news.

I am confident you will not allow the FCC to become a pawn in this matter. Please ensure also that the FCC does not allow local stations to censor political ads, as this could be extremely dangerous to our freedoms as Americans. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joann Schoderbek

periods he chooses.

Now, I don't care what this guy's politics are, and I don't care what his views on abortion are.

What I do care about is my 3½ year old son, Charlie. I care about the other kids in this community. And I care about those women, and men, who have suffered the agony of miscarriage, still-birth, and abortion.

I admire someone who speaks up for what he or she believes - no matter how unpopular the view. But not this way. I'm all for this guy's right of free speech. But when the exercise of his freedom endangers my child - or yours - then it ends, right there! Showing these horrible pictures endangers our children and certain others. It's an outrage!

HERE'S WHY I OBJECT

It's Harmful to People

I believe the airing of these TV spots presents a clear and present danger of inflicting harm upon my children and others in this community. In their statement to the FCC, joining our complaint, The Colorado Women Psychologists organization has this to say:

"It is our belief that these ads may be potentially harmful, particularly to children and certain populations of women: women who may have recently aborted, experienced a miscarriage or stillbirth, are experiencing an unwanted pregnancy..."

"Seeing an image of a fetus in the particular context and with the emotional delivery which is displayed in these ads may make a vivid impression and traumatize some children."

There's No Warning

These TV ads are run at all hours - including when children are watching. A warning seconds before the ad begins is hardly adequate for parents. A small child will not understand the warning. Further, the parent might not be in the room - or even in the house. The candidate should be required to publish a warning in the local newspaper well in advance so that parents have the opportunity, as they do with all other scheduled television programs, to exert some control over what their children are exposed to.

It's Not Necessary

We can convince people to eat vegetarian food - if we choose - without showing the slaughter of a cow, screaming in agony, on TV. We can teach children to cross the street children in order to make a political statement. And to do so is outrageous!

It's A Sham

I, for one, am tired of people who abuse the privilege of being an American - who would

Dear Mr. Chairman:

FCC MAIL ROOM

I want you to know that I strongly object to the broadcasting of political ads in my home that show horrible pictures of aborted fetuses. I ask that you allow the management of TV stations in my community to prevent this from occurring again. If you will not do this, at least allow the stations to air this kind of material at times when children will not be watching, and require the advertiser to publish in the local newspaper a warning and schedule of these ads at least 48 hours before their broadcast.

Mr. Chairman, this is an outrage and I want it stopped. Now!

Respectfully,

What I do care about is my 3½ year old son, Charlie. I care about the other kids in this community. And I care about those women, and men, who have suffered the agony of miscarriage, still-birth, and abortion.

I admire someone who speaks up for what he or she believes - no matter how unpopular the view. But not this way. I'm all for this guy's right of free speech. But when the exercise of his freedom endangers my child - or yours - then it ends, right there! Showing these horrible pictures endangers our children and certain others. It's an outrage!

HERE'S WHY I OBJECT

It's Harmful to People

I believe the airing of these TV spots presents a clear and present danger of inflicting harm upon my children and others in this community. In their statement to the FCC, joining our complaint, The Colorado Women Psychologists organization has this to say:

"It is our belief that these ads may be potentially harmful, particularly to children and certain populations of women: women who may have recently aborted, experienced a miscarriage or stillbirth, are experiencing an unwanted pregnancy..."

"Seeing an image of a fetus in the particular context and with the emotional delivery which is displayed in these ads may make a vivid impression and traumatize some children."

There's No Warning

These TV ads are run at all hours - including when children are watching. A warning seconds before the ad begins is hardly adequate for parents. A small child will not understand the warning. Further, the parent might not be in the room - or even in the house. The candidate should be required to publish a warning in the local newspaper well in advance so that parents have the opportunity, as they do with all other scheduled television programs, to exert some control over what their children are exposed to.

It's Not Necessary

We can convince people to eat vegetarian food - if we choose - without showing the slaughter of a cow, screaming in agony, on TV. We can teach children to cross the street

I, for one, am tired of people who abuse the privilege of being an American - who would

In addition to the enclosed letter I am sending, I would like to say that the horrible ad I saw last night (Channel 2 - 10 pm) depicted 3rd trimester aborted fetuses, which is already outlawed.

This man using this type of advertisement will never receive a vote from me. Maybe I should mutilate a small animal and dismember it in front of his children.

My wife was telling me about this commercial and she started crying each time she spoke of it. And her fear that my 2½ year old son would see it if she was out of the room. She started turning off the T.V. everytime she left the room. I finally saw the commercial and it was horrible.
